An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
 Never permit me to be separated from You.
 Amen.

Un acto de comunión espiritual
 Mi jesus , Creo que estás presente en el Santísimo Sacramento.
 Te amo por encima de todas las cosas y deseo recibirte en mi alma.
 Como no puedo recibirte en este momento sacramentalmente, entra al menos espiritualmente en mi corazón.
 Te abrazo como si ya estuvieras allí y me uno completamente a ti.
 Nunca permitas que me separe de ti.
 Amén.

Pope Francis

Christian joy is usually accompanied by a sense of humor. We see this clearly, for example, in Saint Thomas More, Saint Vincent de Paul and Saint Philip Neri. Ill humor is no sign of holiness. “Remove vexation from your mind”. We receive so much from the Lord “for our enjoyment”, that sadness can be a sign of ingratitude. We can get so caught up in ourselves that we are unable to recognize God’s gifts.

Ordinariamente la alegría cristiana está acompañada del sentido del humor, tan destacado, por ejemplo, en santo Tomás Moro, en san Vicente de Paúl o en san Felipe Neri. El mal humor no es un signo de santidad: «Aparta de tu corazón la tristeza». Es tanto lo que recibimos del Señor, «para que lo disfrutemos», que a veces la tristeza tiene que ver con la ingratitud, con estar tan encerrado en sí mismo que uno se vuelve incapaz de reconocer los regalos de Dios.

Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

Last Sunday, we celebrated the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, an opportune moment to ponder our communion in Jesus Christ, to remember that the Eucharist forms and feeds us as the Church so that we may carry forth the love, mercy, peace and forgiveness, we experience in Mass to the world. We are sent forth to sanctify society so that our families, cities, nation and indeed all of creation increasingly is conformed to the fullness of the Kingdom of God. I once was blessed to distribute communion at a World Youth Day Mass. Hundreds of people surrounded me, approaching to receive the Eucharistic Christ. Varying nationalities. Different races. All ages. Saints and sinners. Multiple languages. A sea of distinct experiences. All united in Christ. All bound in the love of God, poured out on the cross in the blood of Jesus. This Paschal Banquet participates in and foreshadows the celestial Marriage Feast of the Lamb in the Kingdom of God, where all sin, hatred, division, and death will vanish forever. This love is the ultimate solution to our torment and division. This love never fails.
