Pope Francis

This should excite and encourage us to give our all and to embrace that unique plan that God willed for each of us from eternity: "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you".

To be holy does not require being a bishop, a priest or a religious. We are frequently tempted to think that holiness is only for those who can withdraw from ordinary affairs to spend much time in prayer. That is not the case. We are all called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves. Are you called to the consecrated life? Be holy by living out your commitment with joy. Are you married? Be holy by loving and caring for your husband or wife, as Christ does for the Church. Do you work for a living? Be holy by laboring with integrity and skill in the service of your brothers and sisters. Are you a parent or grandparent? Be holy by patiently teaching the little ones how to follow Jesus. Are you in a position of authority? Be holy by working for the common good and renouncing personal gain.

Rejoice & Be Glad paragraph #13 & 14

Congratulations to

Jessica Skye Ruelas,
 Monica Andrea Ruelas &
 Christobal Ortega
 on receiving the Sacrament of First Holy Communion.

Many Blessings to All!

Adult Grief Support Group Begins July 11th

Beloit Regional Hospice will be hosting a grief support group for any adult who has experienced the death of a loved one.

This group begins: Wednesday, July 11th and will meet each Wednesday through August 22nd at the Beloit Regional Hospice offices, 655 Third Street, Suite 200 in Beloit. The group will meet from 2:30pm to 4:00pm.

There is no charge to attend, but advance registration for the group is requested. Walk-ins are welcome for the first two sessions. For further information or to register, please call (608) 363-7421 and ask for Nicole Morgan, Grief Program Coordinator. Grief support groups and resources are open to anyone in the community who has experienced a death. Meeting with other people who are experiencing similar circumstances provides encouragement and support. Coping skills and various aspects of the grieving process will be discussed.

St. Jude special collection in July

Caritas has an ongoing need for haircare products. St. Jude Parish has been asked to collect the following items during the month of July:

Shampoo, Conditioner, and ethnic hair products. A specially marked container is located in the back of the Church. As always, thank you for your support and generosity. If you have any questions contact Bert Sadler at 608-365-1023.

Picnic for St. Jude and St. Thomas Parishes -
